Voting in Arizona

Voting is an important right in our society. It affects every part of our lives from affordable health care to funding for rental assistance. By voting, you are giving your opinion on how you think the government should work.

The information below is about who is eligible to vote, what to bring for voter registration, where to vote, and what to bring to the polling place. The links below are to services found in the 2-1-1 Arizona database. Select a link and add a location under Custom Search at the top.

VOTING ELIGIBILITY:

To be eligible to vote in Arizona you must be:

- A citizen of the United States,
- A legal resident of Arizona,
- At least 18 years old by election day,
- NOT a convicted felon whose voting rights have not yet been restored, and
- NOT declared mentally incompetent by a court.

CAN SOMEONE WHO IS HOMELESS REGISTER AND VOTE?

Yes. Adults experiencing homelessness can register and vote in Arizona.

Homeless voters and those in transition can often use the address of a shelter where they can receive mail as their voter registration address. Each shelter has their own policy on this:

Some agencies provide an address that they will let you use:

- Temporary Mailing Address

You may qualify for a free US post office box:

HOW TO REGISTER TO VOTE:

You can register to vote anytime, however, each election has a registration cutoff deadline.

Register by mail or in person:

- Register to Vote

WHAT IDENTIFICATION DO I NEED TO REGISTER TO VOTE?

If you have an Arizona driver license or identification card issued after October 1, 1996 you will need only to provide the license number on box 9 of the voter registration form.

If you do not have an Arizona license, you may use ONE of the following documents:

- A clear photocopy of a birth certificate that verifies citizenship. You will also need supporting legal documentation (such as a marriage certificate or name change order) if the name on the birth certificate is not the same as your current legal name,
- A clear photocopy of the identification pages of your passport,
- US naturalization documents or fill in your Alien Registration Number in box 11,
- Your Indian Census Number, Bureau of Indian Affairs Card Number, Tribal Treaty Card Number, or Tribal Enrollment Number in box 10, or
- A clear photocopy of your Tribal Certificate of Indian Blood or Tribal or Bureau of Indian Affairs Affidavit of Birth.

WHERE DO I GO TO VOTE?

Go to your designated polling place on election day. Polls are open from 6am-7pm.

Your polling place will be near the address you listed when you registered to vote. Your voter registration card has a precinct number and your voting location. If you do not know that location, you can call the Recorder's Office in your county:

- County Recorder's Office

You can also request the County Recorder's office to send to you an early ballot. To have your name placed on the Permanent Early Voter List, complete a new voter registration form and check the box marked "YES, I want to automatically receive an early ballot for each election for which I am eligible."

WHAT IDENTIFICATION IS REQUIRED TO VOTE?

Every voter is required to show proof of identity at the polling place before receiving a ballot.

You will need to show ONE form of identification from List #1 below,
