

TRANSFORM THE WAY YOU COMMUNICATE

The Center for Community Dialogue & Training has been helping Southern Arizonans talk about challenging issues in a skilled, civil and respectful way for over 40 years.

THE CENTER OFFERS:

- Community Forums & Dialogue Events- Center staff and volunteers expertly facilitate dialogue processes for large Community Forums and small topic-centered groups, empowering respectful and productive discussions in which all voices are heard.
- Community Mediation - Highly skilled, trained and certified volunteer community mediators conduct confidential mediation processes in which they help disputing parties communicate and design their own solutions – safely, with respect, and without going to court.
- Strategic Planning - Center staff use highly interactive methods that fully engage all members of the organization, board of directors, department, coalition or special project to set priorities, focus energy, allocate resources, identify obstacles and determine achievable actions.
- Training for individuals, families and professionals - Gain and enhance skills in conflict management, conflict resolution, dialogue facilitation, effective communication, and running productive meetings. View the current training schedule at: ourfamilyservices.org/training
